As you may have noticed, this comic is available in both English and Japanese. This website is the official English version.

Because the Japanese version is ahead of the power curve (over 70 episodes at this time), we loaded the first 31 episodes of the English version as a kick start.

From there, we will be posting a new English episode up twice a week — Wednesdays and Fridays (Thu and Sat for those in Japan) — until we catch up to the Japanese version. Once we catch up, we will post new English episodes on Wednesdays.

Enjoy! :)
